INTRODUCTION

In this little booklet we are endeavoring to present the early history of the more than six hundred descendants of Nickolas Bollenbacher and his wife, the former Dorothea Kreisher, who were married in the early 1800's. They established a home in Germany at the following address: Mertzweiler, Kreis Sankt Wendel, Reheirungsbezirt Trier, Preizen Thacy, Germany.

Our parents and grand-parents have told us many incidents of the past which may be of interest, but we cannot vouch for the authenticity of everything. These stories have never been recorded in writing and in retelling some of the details may have been changed or omitted.

To the best of our knowledge the history of the Kreisher family dates back to 1749, when Karl Kreisher, the grandfather of Dorothea Kreisher, came to America and established a mill some place on the Susquehanna River. He remained there ten years, after which he set sail for Germany expecting to return to America with his family. However, the ship on which he sailed was lost at sea.

As to the ancestors of Nicholas Bollenbacher, we know very little except that his father was a war casualty leaving his wife with two small sons to support. The widowed mother was employed by a very wealthy nobleman's family and young Nickolas assisted in the care of the valuable horses on the estate. He developed a deep interest in animal care and was awarded a veterinarian's diploma for his success in saving the life of a valuable horse which had been ordered to be killed. He secretly isolated himself with the animal in the forest and after six weeks of treatment returned with the horse completely cured.

As to his life work, his occupation was that of a blacksmith.

To Nickolas and Dorothea Bollenbacher were born seven children. The following five emigrated to the United States: Carl, Caroline, Philip, Henry and Dorothea.

The two children remaining in Germany were Wilhelmina and Peter. Wilhelmina was married to a Mr. Nye and three children blessed this union--one son and two daughters. Peter also married and they had one son and one daughter. Correspondence with the homeland was continued during the early years of their life in Ohio, but was discontinued as the years went on. So nothing more is known of those who remained behind.

Dorothea Kreisher had three sisters who were married to the following men: Weichel, Gottfried, and Justi, descendants of whom have been among the early settlers of Erie County, Ohio.

I. CARL BOLLENBACHER -- KATHARINE MENSCH

Carl, the eldest child, was born in 1809. He was sent to America, (year unknown) to check on the mill established by his forefather, Karl Kreisher, but was unsuccessful in tracing it. To support himself he worked as a blacksmith at one time along the Erie Canal. Later he worked his way westward as far as Kansas where he lived for two years. We are told he lived among the Indians for a time, who treated him kindly, sharing with him their food and shelter, and buffalo or bear skins for his sleeping comfort.

Returning to Ohio he worked at the blacksmith trade at Loudonville and Wooster, Ohio. In 1842 he purchased some land on Rt. 4 in Lyme Township, Huron County, Ohio, cleared some forest land for farming and built a log house with logs cut from the trees.

He was united in marriage to Katharine Mensch in 1843, the only child of Jacob and Katherine Mensch, who came to America with her parents early in the 1830's, making the voyage in a sailing vessel which was eight weeks in crossing the Atlantic Ocean. The grand-parents resided with their daughter and family the balance of their lives.

Six children were born to Carl and Katharine Bollenbacher. Since the death of both parents at that homestead, it has been occupied by some of their descendants and today some of their great grand-children are being reared there.

II. CAROLINE BOLLENBACHER -- JOHN G. SAUTTER

Caroline Bollenbacher, born in 1813, was married in Germany where their eldest son, Jacob, was born. When the family emigrated to America they located first in Cleveland, Ohio, where Mr. Sautter operated a meat market. Later they traveled to Missouri by covered wagon where they resided for two years. Returning from there to Ohio, they located on a farm in Sherman Township, Huron County, east of Weavers Corners. Some years later (year unknown) they moved to Wood County, Ohio. They resided for some time north of Weston, at a place called Oswald Corners. After her husband's death, she resided with her sons Jacob and Henry and their families for a time. Later she resided in her own home near the homes of her two sons until her death. In her youth she developed tuberculosis and the doctors said she could not live. However, she recovered and lived to the ripe old age of 89 years, and through her experiences was able to help others recover from this dread disease. She was known best as a nurse and mid-wife and was always willing to give of her services where needed. Some of her home remedies are still in use today.

During their residence in Cleveland, Ohio, five more children blessed this union as follows: Andrew, Fred, Henry, Regina or Rachel (as she was called) and Louisa. Fred and Louisa died in infancy. Andrew while serving in the Civil War was taken prisoner and died in Andersonville prison supposedly of starvation.

Jacob also served in the Civil War under General Sherman.

III. PHILIP BOLLENBACHER -- MARGARET STUDT

Philip Bollenbacher, born in 1818, came to America in 1839 at the age of 21 years. He resided with relatives who were already here, and a few years later operated a blacksmith shop with his brothers, Carl and Henry, on the Carl Bollenbacher farm.

He was united in marriage to Margaret Studt, a childhood acquaintance from a neighboring village in Germany, who had also come to America with her brother and sisters. The parents followed her later, traveling by boat as far as Buffalo and from there to Cleveland, Ohio by horse and wagon, since there were no railroads west of Buffalo at that time.

The Philip Bollenbacher family first located just south of Brother Carl's home where their oldest daughter, Elizabeth, was born. Some time later they moved east of Weaver's Corners on Rt. 547 where their second daughter Dorothea was born. Later they purchased a farm on Route 4 in Lyme Township across the street from the Carl Bollenbacher homestead where they lived the remaining years of their lives.

The family donated the land for the site of St. Paul's Lutheran Church on Route 4 and also gave the first ground for the cemetery located a short distance from the church and sometimes known as the Bollenbacher Cemetery

IV. HENRY BOLLENBACHER -- ELIZA LEPLEY

Henry Bollenbacher, born in 1821 came to America and Huron County, Ohio a few years later than his brother, Philip. He was associated with his brothers, Carl and Philip, in operating the Blacksmith shop at the Carl Bollenbacher farm.

He was united in marriage in 1844 to Eliza Lepley who was born in Union County, Pennsylvania, coming with her parents to Huron County, Ohio at the age of eight years. Her family located on a farm south of Bellevue being among the very earliest settlers in that section. After Henry and Eliza were married they purchased the farm north of his brother Carl's homestead and here their seven children were born. In connection with farming he also operated a sorghum mill. Later they moved to Wood County, Ohio. After his death there, the widow made her home for the rest of her life with her son, William, at Berlin Heights.

V. DOROTHEA BOLLENBACHER -- CHRISTIAN LEPLEY

Dorothea Bollenbacher, born in 1826 was the last of the five children to come to America, arriving in the early 1840's. There is no record of her first years in Ohio, but after a few years spent in Huron County, Ohio she was united in marriage to Christian Lepley, a brother of her sister-in-law, Eliza. He was also born in Beaver Township, Union County, Pennsylvania, and with his parents came to Ohio at the age of 17 years, living with them on the farm south of Bellevue, Ohio.

After Dorothea and Christian were married, they resided on a farm three-quarters of a mile south of the Carl Bollenbacher homestead, now known as the Miller farm, and where the older children were born. Later they purchased a farm a few miles west of Weaver's Corners in Seneca County, Ohio on Rt. 547, and this became the birthplace of the younger children. They were the parents of the following children--Harriet, Joseph, Henry, William, Amanda, John and Jacob.
